The quietest cabin in its class. New Golf.

Das Auto.

The advertisement is a composite image. The top half shows a man and a woman in a romantic embrace on a blue and white striped beach chair. The woman is wearing a light-colored, flowing dress and has her arms outstretched. The man is behind her, holding her. They are on a sandy beach with the ocean and a blue sky in the background. A white flag with the Nordsee logo is flying in the upper right. The bottom right corner features a close-up of a plate of food: a large, golden-brown fried fish fillet, a side of green asparagus in a creamy sauce, and a portion of yellow potatoes garnished with fresh herbs.

The advertisement features a photograph of three women sitting at a small metal table outdoors, smiling and drinking. One woman is wearing a bright green dress, another a beige dress, and the third a beige trench coat. On the table are two bottles of Alvaro and two glasses of the drink. To the right of the photograph, there is a vertical text block with the brand name and tagline. Below the text, there are two more bottles of Alvaro and a glass of the drink, set against a background of concentric circles.

A man, Siphon Didiza, is performing a handstand in a dark, industrial setting. He is wearing a grey tank top, black shorts with yellow trim, and black sneakers. The background is dark and textured, possibly a brick wall or concrete. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the man's form against the dark background.

Siphon Didiza, 26.

Some do it for gold medals and statues, some for riches and glory. Siphon trains hard to keep fit so that he can focus on the one thing he is truly passionate about, dancing. He's just an extra ordinary athlete and when aches and pains get in the way of his dream, we'll make sure he keeps going.

The advertisement features a group of five people (three men and two women) sitting on a white beach towel on a sandy beach, smiling and talking. They are wearing summer hats and casual clothing. In the background, the ocean and a clear blue sky are visible. To the right of the group, there are two green bottles of Alvaro and a tall glass filled with the drink, which has a golden color and a thick head of foam. The bottles have labels that say 'alvaro'.
