GAME FACE

When your hair is doing all the talking, pore it down make-up wise. Opt for a clean face and perfect skin, and use a highlighter to emphasize and illuminate. Use a white or skin tone pencil on the lower lashline to make eyes appear brighter. You want to look fresh-faced and youthful, uncomplicated yet polished, underdone but still groomed.

PERFECTLY PLAITED

Whether your style is pretty or bold, there's a braid for you. Models at Alexander McQueen sported futuristic, spiralled braids and those at Marchesa displayed hardcore cornrows, while the plaits at Manish Arora and Nanette Lepore were more feminine and soft.
